

OCTAVE Less is more

- More cigarette output per square metre than any equivalent maker on the market today
- More support through our global network of spares and service centres
- Less parts – Octave has approximately one third of the parts of the previous machine
- Less worry with improved reliability and proven technology

The new Molins Octave cigarette maker developed in partnership with TMQS has been designed to give more for less, bringing together the best of British and German design.
