

MOLINS
Tobacco Machinery

The total spares service

Molins has always excelled in being one of the world's leading suppliers of complex and custom-made parts to the tobacco industry. But did you know that we can supply even the most simple part for any of our machines at a competitive price?

In fact, as part of our continual improvement programme, we ensure that we are able to fulfil all our customers spares requirements to exacting and high quality standards.

We understand how vital the support of reliable and professional spares supply is to a manufacturing business so our service is designed to deliver the best response and total life-cycle cost solution.
